

55th Issue!! FuchsiaStars Lunar Notes © January 6, 2007

Hello Everyone!

Welcome back to the 55th issue Lunar Notes Lunar Notes is a free monthly e-Newsletter that discusses the cycle of the Moon as well as the symbolism of the New and Full Moon, Eclipses and other significant planetary aspects during the upcoming month. Relationship issues are also discussed under the Soul Mates/Relationship Section. If you missed the 1st Issues of Lunar Notes you can locate them on my websites: www.KarmicAstrology.tv or www.FuchsiaStars.com Any one wishing to subscribe to this newsletter can do so by submitting your e-mail address through Yahoogroups.com and you will automatically be subscribed to LunarNotes.

Some of you have already e-mailed me about posting the 2007 Retrograde Planets and Eclipses and New/Full Moons. They have been posted to this e-list and in the FuchsiaStars Yahoogroups directory and will soon be posted to both websites. *

I'd like to apologize for the lateness of this issue and may, over the next few months, limit the amount of time I devote to the newsletter for a few reasons. First and foremost, I returned to school in October 2005. In the past few months in particular, most of my free time has been spent studying and writing papers for classes. My desire to complete classes sooner rather than later prompted me to double up increasing the work load. Second, I spend a lot of time devoted to writing the newsletter because of my love of astrology and desire to spread the message. I enjoy helping others help themselves utilizing astrological technique and symbolism. However, the time involved in writing the newsletter over the past 4 years has been more of a labor of love. While Lunar Notes started as a free zine, after two years I suggested a voluntary donation towards the time spent writing, editing and posting it. Since that time only 2 individuals have actually contributed a donation towards Lunar Notes. While I love writing the newsletter, it is becoming cost/time prohibitive to me. Another idea is for me to reduce the newsletter to one or two pages, thereby minimizing time spent on it. In this case, I would appreciate your thoughts of what to keep and what can be let go. Keeping in mind that this reprieve may be temporary and I might very well change the format permanently.

Perhaps we can take a vote and see if anyone out there would continue to subscribe for a small fee. Please e-mail me directly with your feedback and suggestions to FuchsiaStars@aol.com and type LunarNotes in the subject heading.

I'd also like to take this moment to thank all of you who subscribe to Lunar Notes and for all of your comments and suggestions. The first issue of Lunar Notes was distributed in July 2002 which means that Lunar Notes will be going into its 5th year! I remember sitting down to type the first issue and when it was finally completed and ready to e-mail it off to you, my hard drive was fried in an electrical storm! The first issue was actually distributed from my neighbor's house down the block!

Within the last four years both www.FuchsiaStars.com and www.KarmicAstrology.tv websites were awarded the Spirit and Sky Award for best Spiritual websites. I am grateful to all of you who have visited my websites and who have requested consultations. It has been a gratifying experience getting to know many of you through either Tarot or Astrological consultations. I look forward to meeting more of you in this coming New Year!

Happy Epiphany, ☩

The 12th day after Christmas, January 6th, is the day of Epiphany. An epiphany is a realization, an aha or that inner sense of illumination of a thing that wasn't there previously. It is the comprehension of the essence of a thing as in a discovery. In some cultures it is the time for baking of the King's cake. It is a celebration for The Three Kings or Three Wise Men. According to an old legend based on a Bible story, these three kings saw, on the night when Christ was born, a bright star, followed it to Bethlehem and found there the Christchild and presented it with gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Epiphany is a time of ritual and celebration. One such celebration is a Burning Bowl Ceremony. This ceremony provides an opportunity to meditate and reflect on aspects of your life and your consciousness that you are ready to release as you prepare to enter a new year. After writing that which you choose to release from your life on a small paper you place them in a fireproof bowl and allow it to burn. Place one such desire on each sheet of paper. Afterwards, writing those things you wish to keep in your life on small pieces of paper are to be kept either in a space on your altar, a small pouch or bag or in a cup. Burning sage to cleanse your space and your aura is also suggested along with your favorite flower essence. *

Happy Birthday Capricorn the Sea Goat! Happy Birthday to all of those born from December 22 - January 21! Key Phrase for Capricorn is "I UTILIZE "

Capricorn is a Cardinal (action oriented, initiator), earth (pragmatic and grounded) sign located in the Eastern Hemisphere of the chart. Capricorn governs the 10th house of the natural zodiac. Capricorns are considered the workaholics of the zodiac and Saturn expects nothing less from us than he is willing to do himself. Capricorns are dutiful, reliable and steady. Capricorns were the children who everyone would seek advice from. Many Capricorns were old before their time, wise beyond their years and very mature. They tend to act younger with each passing year wanting to make up for all that lost time! Capricorn in health issues relates to the skin, bones/skeletal system, knees and arthritis...illnesses where inflexibility or rigidity settles in the body.

Your ruling planet is the restrictive and structured planet Saturn. In traditional astrology, Saturn is considered to be a malefic planet and tends to operate through our fear. Saturn is considered to be thrifty, tactful, disciplined, stern, cold and severe. When Saturn transits our chart he usually brings some kind of limitation to our lives. Frustration and hard work is expected from Saturn. If you have met the challenge and worked through a Saturn transit, you will often manifest wisdom and benefits from your hard work. Sometimes when Saturn transits your chart decisions are made or finalized. On the positive side when you are self-disciplined and self-directed at a task, accomplishment and financial gain is your "Saturnian" reward. If you have Saturn strong in your chart, you may be drawn to antiques, ruins, ancient times and even collecting old objects of substance and worth.

Saturn and the sign of Capricorn reside in the 10th house of the zodiac and starts at the cusp called the MC or Medium Coeli. The 10th house is typically linked to structures, real estate, your public reputation and work in society, timing, cycles and wisdom earned as a result of difficult tasks. The 10th house, the ruler of the 10th and planets in the 10th are also symbolic of the mother, traditionally, or often the parent who was most influential in your life. Saturn is a tough teacher and taskmaster, if you will. He sets limits, boundaries and obstacles for us to overcome. Depending on how well we do, he may grant us a "reward"...a reward for our hard work. In Karmic Astrology, Saturn plays an important role and represents cycles of time. When we are in a "karmic" relationship, there is a feeling of lack of control over the events and circumstances within the relationship. Through these circumstances and events, we develop a new self-awareness, a new understanding of the person we are involved with and also how we relate to the environment. Saturn will often present us with someone approximately 7, 14, 21 years older or younger than ourselves. "When the student is ready, the teacher (Saturn) will appear." Some karmic relationships are teacher/student, parent/child or counselor/patient. There is something which must be taught, and something that needs to be learned and understood...by both participants. When there are Saturn contacts in synastry (chart comparison) it will usually augur a lasting and binding relationship, although it may not always be an easy one.

Martin Schulman, in his wonderful Karmic Astrology series states: "Every time our unconscious is working something out, it calls into our lives the people who have within the pieces of the answer we are seeking." What he means is that you may find that a certain type of person or situation repeatedly enters your life. Just as you end a relationship with one person with a particular problem, another enters your life, often disguised, with a similar problem! (that is if you haven't worked through and learned your lesson from before) Sometimes the Universe brings you this situation or person as a "test" to see how much you have learned from your last similar experience. Or...you may meet several people consecutively with the same sun or moon sign or similar aspects. There is something the universe is pointing you towards and you must pay attention to what is being presented for you to learn. This is Saturn - the wise teacher and why others often consult Capricorn's for their cut to the chase advice.

Capricorn's polar opposite (10th house - public reputation, real estate, business affairs, power, credit, profession and the Mother) is the cardinal, water sign Cancer (4th house - home, family, children, the past and root in early childhood). Career versus home life, working and family are issues that are frequently in conflict for Capricorns, also contingent upon other areas of the birth chart. When under stress each sign will operate through the most negative characteristics of their polar opposite, the sign 180 degrees opposite itself. In this case, when under stress, Capricorn can become ...just like cardinal, watery Cancer, ruled by the Moon and become emotionally distraught, moody and temperamental withdrawing, crawling into its shell for self-nurturing, distance and comfort.

When Saturn transits your birth chart or if Saturn is prominent in your chart, you may experience restrictions, boundary issues, and extra responsibilities.

Somewhere inside my evolution
Karmically I seek retribution
Looking for love in physical beauty
Desire is the drug of the bourgeoisie
And now I try to intellectualize
Like a glimmer of good in a bad man's eyes
I am consumed by the flesh haunting me
I know temptation taunts the empty

The decadence of giving into desire
Creates such entropy within
Looking for love in spiritual faces
Blind to the art of fabrication
I'm like a baby sucking mama's milk
Want to drink my fill and then some
Leave me alone
I always thought I was better than this
But temptation tempts the temptee

This physicality
Shifting me chemically
Such power over me
It's just desire
I know it's treachery (shifting me chemically)
I know it's just skin deep (such power over me)
I know I should resist
I'm just too tired
Too tired

There's just one thing missing
One thing missing here is Love

Tarot Card # 15 XV - The Devil - Symbolic of Capricorn ♄

The Devil Card in the Rider Waite Tarot deck is symbolic of some of the feelings we have when in an addictive relationship. We may feel so completely bonded to this person in an almost obsessive way. Because of this obsession we will often feel tied down or stifled by the intensity of this energy almost as if it is against our will! We often merge with this person on a very deep level losing our independence and allowing ourselves to be controlled and enslaved to this addictive feeling of sexual love. When we become addictive in our love patterns we often get caught up in appearances and the physical part of the relationship. We begin to limit ourselves, choosing to stay in the dark about other areas of the relationship. When we neglect seeing other areas of the relationship we can start to think negatively about seeing the relationship without this passionate energy and the intensity of the connection. We can become stuck in fear and doubt at this point.

On a mundane level, The Devil symbolizes our obsession with materialism. You may feel bound, controlled and owned by the possessions you have acquired, fearful of not having enough. We "are" what we own or without those "things" we are no one. Possessions and what we own only reflect our own inner insecurities, if that is all that brings us happiness. This doesn't always have to be a physical object as it can be a thought or a belief that keeps you stuck or self confined in self-destructive patterns, preventing of self-sabotaging your happiness.

The Devil is card number fifteen. If you add $1 + 5 = 6$. The number 6 card in the tarot is the Lovers card, #6. They symbolism in both cards is contained within each other in that the energy of the Devil is the shadow side of The Lovers. Every individual, even those who claim to be spiritually evolved, has some dark or negative aspects to the personality and character that may surface from time to time. When we are not in love, we are in fear. The Devil card is about facing our unrealistic fears that bind and chain us to unhealthy emotional and psychological patterns. In the Lovers, we are asked to seek our Higher Power, the archangel who provides infinite guidance to those who seek the spiritual path of unconditional love.

The Symbol of The Devil may appear in a reading during a time to focus on ridding your obsessions over people, situations and material possessions that control your life. Facing your fears and bondage to obsessions and compulsions is underscored.

EARTH RENEWAL MOON (Snow Goose) ☾

In Native American Astrology, those born from December 22nd - January 19th are born under the Earth Renewal Moon and their animal totem is the Snow Goose. Their color is white and quartz is their totem in the mineral kingdom. Quartz is a fairly hard mineral and comes in a variety of smoky pastel colors. Quartz is a power stone and has the ability to transmit and receive energy through it. Like the quartz, the Snow Goose has the ability to transmit and receive great powers to and from the universe. They have the ability to see clearly as long as they do not become too hard in their views or philosophies.

If you have ever seen Snow Geese flying overhead, you will see them fly in a V shape with an adult female as the lead goose. Each goose helps to break the air by those who follow. They make quite an impression on us with their "honking" and precision in flight. Snow Geese are also known to be nitpickers because they hate when things are left undone.

SABIAN SYMBOL'S:

For those of you unfamiliar with the Sabian Symbol, the original Sabian Symbols were written in 1931 by Marc Edmond Jones. Dane Rudhyar later revised the symbols and others have re-interpreted the symbols periodically. Lynda Hill writes one of my favorite modern interpretations. The basis of these symbols is derived from the 360 degrees in the zodiacal circle. Each sign of the zodiac: Aries, Taurus, Gemini and so forth, is comprised of 30 degrees. Since there are 12 signs in the zodiac, that would be 12 signs X 30 degrees = 360 degrees. There are 360 Sabian Symbols and each symbol coincides with and describes each degree of the zodiac. If you know your birth chart, utilizing these symbols for each of your planetary placements is rather telling and will provide you with greater insight into your own character traits and motivations.

FULL MOON - January 3, 2007 - 12 Cancer 48'.

With a Full Moon, we see a culmination or coming to a head the seeds planted during the previous New Moon cycle. Lunar ruled Cancer is usually more affected by a Full Moon and especially in her own sign. Since the January 3rd Full Moon falls in the sign of Cancer, this lunar energy will be emphasized. Cancer is an emotional, water sign located in the 4th house the natural zodiac, ruled by our lunar goddess the Moon. In the sign of Cancer, this Full Moon will intensify your feeling nature and need for family, children and nurturing. Your home life may be busier than usual this month. A Full Moon increases in light and is always a culmination of energy.

SABIAN SYMBOL FOR 13 Cancer:

A HAND, WHICH IS HELD OUT RECEPTIVELY, IS REMARKABLE FOR THE SUGGESTION OF CHARACTER IN ITS PROMINENT THUMB.

My understanding of palmistry is the prominent thumb stand for the will and for power. When I see an image of an extended hand I am reminded of both the Ace of Pentacles and Ace of Cups in the Tarot. In each case a hand is extended in offering something. Cups are about emotional support and exploring feelings and the expressions of the heart while pentacles offer support on the physical plane. An extended hand is the effort to assist and to produce. The extension of the hand is symbolic of a willingness to help those in need.

The thumb can show a strong desire or determination to impress others according to Lynda Hill.

Negatively this symbol would show aggressiveness or an overbearing nature. Sometimes those who seek to manipulate others will extend a hand in a "smooth" handshake.

NEW MOON - January 18 2007 - 28 Capricorn 41"

The New Moon is about new beginnings. Seeds and ideas that are planted during the New Moon have the opportunity to grow, blossom and flourish during the Full Moon.

SABIAN SYMBOL FOR 29 Capricorn

A WOMAN READING TEA LEAVES

This symbol shows a woman who is intuitive and can read the signs. She may be clairvoyant, able to see the future. Reading teas leaves is about bringing creative interpretation to the pattern of the leaves. Seeing your situation from a different perspective may be required of you at this time. Seeking guidance from spiritual teachers provides answers. Those answers may be symbolic rather than literal and you may have to rely on your inner voice to interpret the clues.

Where does 29 degrees of Capricorn reside in your birth chart? If you don't know, feel free to call me (732) 462-5239 and we can review your chart.

SOUL MATES/RELATIONSHIPS:

The Capricorn/Cancer - Ascendant/Dendant Relationship Axis (1st house/7th house)

As mentioned in past issues, knowing your partners 7th house cusp (the relationship house) and the ruler of that house will indicate the type of partner you may attract or are attracted to and the method of relating within a relationship.

The Ascendant or Rising sign is the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This is the face we show the world, our "mask" for which our Sun hides behind. This is our outer personality, temperament and disposition as well as how we experienced our early home environment growing up. It is the way others see us and also gives indication of our physical appearance. The ruler of the Ascendant and the aspects (connections to other planets in your birth chart) further delineate and define your physical appearance.

The Dendant, or 7th house cusp, its ruler and the aspects it makes in your birth chart, is symbolic of the type of partner you are attracted to. The 7th house is the house of all partnerships including marriage and legal contracts yet also considered the house of open enemies or the Dendant in a law suit.

In relationships, Capricorn has a planetary rulership with karmic Saturn. If you have a Capricorn Ascendant, you appear responsible, mature, controlled, serious, reserved, warm, friendly and determined. Others look to you for advice and seek wisdom in your presence.

With Lunar ruled Cancer on the dendant you seek a home loving and family oriented person, one who will make a good marriage partner. Attraction to a partner with those qualities who is nurturing, has good parenting skills, a good cook, easily expresses emotions and feelings and who is responsible with money is likely. A man with Capricorn on the Ascendant may be physically attracted to the female form, especially the breasts.

One of the first things you could look at when you have the birth data of a potential partner, is their Moon placement since the Moon rules your descendant.

It is also possible for a Capricorn Ascendant to attract a partner who has Saturn or the Moon prominent in their chart. Prominent Saturn would be in aspect to the Sun, Moon, Mars or Venus or elevated in conjunction to the MC (10th house cusp) or IC (4th house cusp) conjunct or ruling their Ascendant or Descendant or Sun sign in Capricorn.

Knowing the date, time and place of birth is important in making the determination of the Ascendant or Rising sign, the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This cusp sets up all the other house cusps that are the divisions of the houses or areas of life.
