Happy Birthday Libra the Scales! For those born September 23 - October 22!
Key Phrase for Libra is "I BALANCE" The sign of Libra is ruled by lovely Venus and along with the 7th house rules relationships of all kinds, marriage, open enemies, law suits. Libra also rules the kidneys, and veins. Librans usually have a great many interests i.e.: theater, decorating, beautiful music, art collecting...anything that is aesthetically pleasing and luxurious. Librans are likable because they exude charm, grace and have elegant taste. They enjoy entertaining and all the comforts money can buy.

Libra abhors discord and will literally run in the opposite direction to avoid anything or anyone distasteful or unpleasant. You try to smooth over difficult situations and will "mediate" the atmosphere around you. In order to avoid difficult situations you will often hide or stifle your own true feelings. You are often indecisive and difficulty making firm decisions and commitments. Libra Rising (Ascendant) individuals are often visually attractive, charming and usually have great legs! Libra ascendants are discussed in greater detail further in this newsletter.

Libra folks want their relationships to be fair and in balance. You are born diplomats. Often enough, the task is working at maintaining balance rather than being "in balance" naturally. Idealistic, naturally optimistic and romantic, Libra will do everything in their power to please you.

Libra is the only sign of the zodiac that is a mechanical device rather than an animal or human figure. "The scales in Libra had a deep significance for the Egyptians. It was said that at the time of death the goddess Maat placed the human soul on one scale and a feather on the other. If the scale tipped even slightly, the soul must reincarnate with the goal of releasing the extra weight. Since Libra comes before Scorpio, the sign associated with death - which the Egyptians honored in the eloquent preparations for the afterlife - the prime goal in life was to make the scales balance, or to prepare the soul for its afterlife" - Mythic Astrology, Guttman and Johnson.

Libra's polar opposite (7th house - partnerships, relationships, law suits, open enemies, marriage) is the cardinal, fire sign Aries (1st house- personality, self, physical appearance). The integration of me versus us is some areas of life for Libra, also contingent upon other areas of the birth chart. When under stress each sign will operate through the most negative characteristics of their polar opposite...the sign 180 degrees opposite itself. In this case, when under stress, Libra can become ...just like fiery Aries, ruled by war god Mars and lose their balance and become impulsive or impatient.

Interestingly, I recently read that there is greater geomagnetic disturbances in the ocean During March/April, the Spring Equinox (Aries), and September/October during the Autumn Equinox (Libra). Fewer disturbances are found at the Solstice points of December/January (Capricorn) and June/July (Cancer). Since Aries/Libra is typically the relationship axis, the symbolism illuminates the unique and disparate energies of Mars (Aries) and Venus (Libra)!

If you have your...

Ascendant in Libra: Libra rising folks possess grace, poise and charm. They take pride in their attire and are usually well liked. Mostly optimistic and sensitive, can be deeply hurt by others yet will not show it. Sometimes a bit outwardly aloof, people tend to not understand what is going on inside of you. Individuals with Libra on the Ascendant are usually quite attractive facially and one of their best physical features is usually their well formed legs. Artistic and musically incline, Libra rising excels in the social graces. Sometimes possessing an overly dependent nature on others and passive avoidance in decision making.

Moon in Libra: Moon in Libra individuals tend to have a heightened awareness of people they come in contact with as well as their immediate environment. There is an emotional need for comfort and safety within immediate surroundings; it must be aesthetically pleasing to the eye. The moon in Libra is charming and usually easy to live with. Libra moon is intuitive, imaginative and romantic.

Mercury in Libra: Here you have a rational mind weighing the pros and cons of every situation. You enjoy socializing yet are gentle in your approach. You prefer intellectual and creative individuals who spark your desire of debate.

Venus in Libra: Values a partner who is refined, charming and attractive. In love you are very romantic. Sometimes you may fall in love too easily. You are attracted to luxury and comforts in life and may be artistically inclined.

Mars in Libra: Mars in this sign is impulsive and sensual. Passion equals equity in this sign. You act with care in weighing every aspect of a situation.

Famous Librans: ☺ Jim Henson, Muppet Creator, September 24, George Gershwin, Composer, September 26, Sting, British Singer/Songwriter, October 2, Susan Sarandon, Actress, October 4, John Lennon, Song Writer/Musician, October 9, Luciano Pavarotti, Italian Tenor, Bela Lugosi, Horror Film Actor - Dracula, October 20th, Dizzie Gillespie, Jazz Pioneer, October 21.

Tarot Card # 11 - Justice - Symbolic of Libra

Justice represents harmony and balance. In all the cards, we encounter the positive and negative aspects of life. We must always choose between right and wrong, dark and light and find the shades of gray in between. Justice represents the balance that we must all create in order to live a healthy and fulfilling life.

The image in this card sits a woman between 2 columns. In her right hand she holds a double-edged sword, symbolic of the mind, duality and decision-making. In her left hand are the scales of justice used to find harmony and balance. There are often conflicting elements in our lives preventing us from achieving balance.

This card symbolizes The Universal Law of Equilibrium and pure intellect. The "Sword of Justice" eliminates waste and knows how to prioritize. Weighing evidence, judgment and decision making are all implied in "Justice".

When this card appears in a reading, it suggests that you must look at the areas of imbalance or excess in your life to where moderation and equilibrium will bring you peace and replace chaos. Making a correct choice and being careful what you wish for is possible.

THE DUCKS FLY MOON

In Native American Astrology, those born from September 23- October 22nd are born under the Ducks Fly Moon and are the Raven people. Their gemstone is Jasper or Bloodstone and has properties to actually stop hemorrhaging/bleeding and provide the owner with a long life. Raven people, when they have not found their balance, will fly from one mood to another. As we know, this kind of mood fluctuation can cause depression in some. Raven people who have found the balance in their lives can utilize their special psychic powers to help others find their own point of balance.

Raven people are also quite versatile and have the ability to shift and change. They are able to get over and smooth out discord in their surroundings and are adept in assisting others in the same. They are capable of making others feel soothed and welcome.

Raven people are very intelligent and are capable of soaring from one position to another rather quickly. These are people who are both comfortable on the earth and in the sky...on the material plane and spiritual plane. They do tend to be group oriented and enjoy the mutual support and cooperation from others. Raven people often mate for life, however, some do not. They frequently find it difficult to make a decision about the relationship and will frequently change their mind about whether or not they have chosen the "right" partner. Harmony is very important to the Raven.

JUNO - Relating - The Wife (partial reprint from Oct 2006 Lunar Notes)

Juno is the goddess of marriage and was known for her fidelity and loyalty to her husband Zeus/Jupiter. The 6th month of June was sacred to her and traditionally many marriages take place during the month of June. Juno symbolizes the principle of relationship and like the sign of Libra, our most intimate partnerships. She also signifies the consummation of marriage and is also linked to the sign of Scorpio. Children and the rights of children are linked to Juno in the horoscope.

Research conducted by The Magi Society indicates how Juno may relate to addictions in the birth chart. Juno was jealous and prone to obsess over her husband Jupiter's extra marital affairs. The obsessive qualities of Juno may prevail when linked with Neptune as far as addictions go. I've not done much personal research on Juno as she relates to addictions, yet I hope to sometime in the not too distant future. To the best of my personal research, Neptune points towards most addictions.

Juno in your horoscope can point to a "soul" mate partner and is often an indicator of compatibility between two birth charts. Juno yearns for a deeply committed, mystical and sexually fulfilling relationship. Unfortunately many of Juno's expectations in her marriage to Jupiter were not fulfilled and realized. Jupiter betrayed Juno by having numerous affairs while holding her loyal to him in her sexual chastity. He did not maintain sexual fidelity. Since her relationship needs were not met, she displayed a variety of complexes which included jealousy, abandonment issues, sacrifice, playing victim, giving away of power, manipulation, patterns of oppression, possessiveness and anger to name a few.

Juno wanted a relationship that was fair and reciprocal. However, what she experienced with Jupiter were power struggles, infidelity, oppression, disappointments and conflicts when she was faced with the reality of her marriage to Jupiter for what it really was.

Bringing the symbol of Juno in our relationship today is quite different. Having one monogamous relationship our entire life is no longer the norm, nor is it practical. We live so much longer and are more spiritually aware and growth oriented. It is more common for us to engage in serial monogamy where we may have 3 or 4 long-term partners or marriages during our life. I do not believe that most people are naturally monogamous, although I believe that planets in some signs are more prone towards the desire for monogamy, it is a choice some people make for themselves and their relationship. That choice is one of maintaining intimacy, security and stability within an existing relationship. Let's face it, the more distractions or people you bring into a marriage the greater likelihood for that marriage or relationship to break down over time anyway. Fear of committing or being truly "intimate" with a partner may also cause one or both to seek excitement outside of the marriage. Cyber affairs come to mind here.

"Men don't respect us when we allow them to be selfish. They want us to call them on it, but nicely, so they can grow and be happier with themselves and with us in a relationship"
- Dr. John Gottman

Perhaps Juno had unrealistic expectations in her marriage to Jupiter/Zeus. She assumed that in marriage she would be Jupiter's only sexual partner. When she discovered this was not the case, she became enraged, jealous and very possessive of him. She remained faithful to him despite his infidelity. This was her choice. Her faithfulness was one of Juno's finest attributes. She stood by her man, no matter what. The unfortunate part of this was that her unhappiness and sadness was internalized. The sexual boundaries in their marriage were betrayed. When hurt and pain are internalized and feel unfulfilled, a variety of pathologies can result i.e.: resentment, regret, bitterness then depression. She might have asked herself some questions: How much must you sacrifice or accept to be in this marriage/relationship? When does being overly accepting and denying our needs betray who you are and what you value most? Is your compromise appreciated? Astrologically, here Juno would signify the lack of acknowledgment received from her partner and the emerging resentment that her needs are not being met.

That I love you
I have loved you all along
And I miss you
Been far away for way too long
I keep dreaming you'll be with me
...and you'll never go
Stop breathing if...
I don't see you anymore...

Far Away by Nickelback

When we take a vow of marriage most people think their spouse automatically takes a vow of fidelity. How many people ask their partner, beforehand, if they want only one sexual partner during the marriage and more importantly can they be monogamous? Given the high incidence of "affairs" in our society, individuals need to discuss issues of fidelity "before" they legally tie the knot, don't you agree? It is mostly assumed that because you have a legal document, a marriage certificate, this implies fidelity and the marriage will be a monogamous relationship. In actuality, it only implies a legal commitment ("Til Divorce do us part.") and a tax deduction. Actually, in the vows of marriage there is nothing remotely insinuating fidelity.

Our patriarchal society imposes and assumes monogamy and restricts our basic, inherent instinct to procreate, at will. Monogamy and fidelity is a choice. It should never be assumed or taken for granted. Both celibacy and monogamy are choices you make and it is human nature and your basic right to be able to change your mind about it. Astrologer Jeffrey Green comments on this and states that the concept of monogamy, one sexual partner for life, exists because men wanted to own and possess their partners. The beginning of patriarchy has its roots in the knowledge that men have an "interest" in and contributed to the conception of children...this was the beginning of patriarchy. Their partners were then considered property to own. Is this why when women marry they suddenly becomes Mrs. "His last name"? These are issues surrounding the position of Juno in the birth chart.

"I believe in karma, what you give is what you get in return,
I believe you can't appreciate real love until you get burned.
I believe the grass is no more greener on the other side.
I believe you don't know what you've got until you say goodbye.
I believe you can't control or choose your sexuality,
I believe that trust is more important than monogamy."

- Savage Garden - Affirmation

The house in which Juno resides in your birth chart points to where you are most committed or obsessed. For instance, Juno in the 10th house might show a person most committed to work and their profession. It might also say that having a "wife" or "husband" and having the identity of being "married" is important to the career. Juno conjunct (close in degree) the Sun would manifest similarly and might also say "I don't exist without a partner" or "I need to have a committed partner or I am committed to partnering". My own Juno resides in house 9 in the sign of Leo, the house of higher learning, beliefs, spirituality, philosophies and long distance travel. I have on more than one occasion been in a relationship with someone from another country, ethnicity or in relationship with a partner who traveled to another country for work. I also need my partner to share in similar philosophies of life and a spiritual path. In the sign of Leo, I tend to attract Fire signs (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius) or a fiery personality. Juno in Leo in the 9th house would show the need for a loyal and devoted partner, one to feel proud of (Leo) who may also be a mentor or paternal figure, or the reverse, be expected to fill this role.

Today, the placement of Juno in your chart may also symbolize the area of life where you should be open to change and balance in your relationship. If Juno lived in 2006 perhaps she would have divorced Jupiter. Perhaps she would not have accepted the back seat in their marriage. Women today want equal say in their relationships and don't necessarily see it their duty to stay and protect the home life if it means giving up parts of who they are or what they value to stay in a marriage. Women have many choices today.

Juno is currently transiting at 4 degrees of Scorpio. Juno in the sign of Scorpio desires a certain level of intensity within a relationship. Jealousy is possible or attempts at controlling or manipulating the partner in some way. The ideal partner is one who sexy and devoted because Juno in Scorpio has a need to be the "only" one in your life.

As seen on a Church Bulletin Board posted on a main road near my home:

"Forbidden fruits, create many jams."

SOUL MATES/RELATIONSHIPS:

The Libra/Aries Ascendant/Descendant Relationship Axis (1st house/7th house)

As mentioned in past issues, knowing your partners 7th house cusp (the relationship house) and the ruler of that house will indicate the type of partner you may attract or are attracted to and the method of relating within a relationship.

The Ascendant or Rising sign is the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This is the face we show the world, our "mask" for which our Sun hides behind. This is our outer personality, temperament and disposition as well as our early environment growing up. It is the way others see us and also gives indication of our physical appearance. The ruler of the Ascendant and the aspects (connections to other planets in your birth chart) further delineate and define your appearance.

The Descendant, or 7th house cusp, its ruler and the aspects it makes in your birth chart, is symbolic of the type of partner you are attracted to and your relationship needs once in one. The 7th house is the house of partnerships of all types including marriage and legal contracts yet also considered the house of open enemies or the Defendant in a law suit.

In relationships, Venus ruled Libra rising is affable, charming, graceful in movement and attractive. Libra is versatile, has good manners and will pay you generous compliments. Librans also enjoy beauty and luxury, therefore the correct atmosphere is important to Libra.

This sign will cultivate a relationship. Yet if it should end, it is this sign that will try to maintain an amicable relationship afterwards. If you have a Libra Ascendant, you are deeply upset by injustice and will take great pains to see this corrected. You are refined and discreet yet sometimes aloof. I've never known a Libra Rising who didn't have attractive legs! In love, this placement would require one to be equal in a partnership. Sharing equally in a partnership and compromise would be some of the wonderful characteristics of Libra. Libra is attracted to beauty and balance. Because its ruler is Venus, values, beauty, art, relating and socializing are some of Libra's finest qualities.

With Mars ruled Aries on the Descendant, attraction to a partner who is confident, assertive and dynamic is possible. The person could have an angular face with red or auburn hair. Very often a combative or aggressive, independent partner may be attracted if those qualities aren't owned in you. It is possible to attract a partner who has Mars prominent in their chart. A prominent Mars would be in aspect to the Sun, Moon, Mars or Venus or elevated in conjunction to the MC or conjunct or ruling their Ascendant or Descendant.

Knowing the date, time and place of birth is important in making the determination of the Ascendant or Rising sign, the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This cusp sets up all the other house cusps that are the divisions of the houses or areas of life.
